DESTINATION DINING

The restaurants, bars, and lounges in Waldorf Astoria Seychelles Platte Island are atmospheric showcases of culinary excellence and unparalleled service, and a key part of the singular experience of luxury that Waldorf Astoria promises.

Moulin

Embodying a 'soil to soul' concept, Moulin invites you on a holistic journey of conscious eating. It operates as a cookery school during the day, transforming into a unique restaurant at nightfall.

Maison Des Epices

Showcasing a unique Creole Latino-Creole culinary blend. Prominently featuring live cooking stations where global meats – including our own aged variety – sizzle over open fires, and locally sourced produce is transformed into memorable dishes.

La Perle

La Perle celebrates the ocean's bounty with locally sourced seafood and the freshest daily catch, expertly paired with the rich flavors of the Northern Mediterranean and Asian twists, offering a laid-back dining experience.

Peacock Terrace

Defined as an intimate sanctuary, Peacock Terrace is the haven for artisanal pastries, Seychelles-roasted coffee and teas. An intimate venue that welcomes guests during the day, it masterfully blends the intricate artistry of coffee brewing and pastry-making with the distinguished hospitality for which the venue is celebrated.

Lalin

Our evening star sets the stage for elegant pre-dinner indulgence and refined nocturnal sips. Open until the final guest's departure, this vibrant venue showcases an exclusive array of inventive cocktails and a curated selection of sparkling wines, including champagne, cava, and prosecco.

Torti

Torti, the vibrant pool and beach bar at the heart of the resort, is distinguished by its unique offerings and engaging atmosphere. Known for customizable Bento box offerings and fresh sushi, this outlet complements inventive beverages with a curated selection of new world wines and gins.

CONSERVATION

We recognize our role in preserving Platte Island's pristine environment. We actively collaborate with local non-profit conservation organizations such as the Marine Conservation Society Seychelles (MCSS) and the Island Conservation Society (ICS) to fulfil this responsibility. Additionally, we have a resident marine biologist to manage ongoing conservation projects.

Our sustainability efforts include utilising solar energy, maintaining a vegetable garden to supplement our food, and minimizing our overall impact on the island's ecosystem. This commitment to conservation allows us to offer guests a luxurious experience while protecting Platte Island's natural beauty for future generations.

RECOGNITION

Waldorf Astoria Seychelles Platte Island has received the Forbes Five-Star rating – the first and only resort in Seychelles to achieve this recognition. Alongside this, the resort has been awarded the Sustainable Seychelles Gold Medal and the Verified Responsible Hospitality distinction by Forbes Travel Guide, underscoring our unwavering commitment to sustainability. From solar energy integration and wildlife protection to zero-waste practices and marine conservation, every initiative reflects our vision of redefining luxury hospitality in harmony with nature.

Our Waldorf Astoria Spa has been named Seychelles' Best Resort Spa 2025 by the World Spa Awards. This honor reflects our philosophy of blending advanced wellness innovations with intuitive, world-class care. Through transformative treatments, exclusive partnerships, and a setting immersed in pristine natural beauty, our spa offers an inspiring sanctuary for rejuvenation and reconnection.
